

Sarah Trist Dance Management Agency Privacy Policy

Sarah Trist Dance Management Agency takes your privacy seriously. This privacy policy describes how and why we obtain, store and process data which can identify you. We may update this policy from time to time and shall indicate on the website when changes have been made.

Information is collected from you when you get in touch with us.

The information about you is held so that we can inform you about artists we represent, their projects, and performances

We will only pass on information about you as an individual (as opposed to aggregate information) to third parties to enable us to perform services requested by you or with your prior consent. If you give your consent, we will pass your contact details to our represented artists may contact you directly about bookings you have made. In certain circumstances we may need to disclose information about you if you breach this privacy policy or if you breach the Terms and Conditions. We may also disclose or access your account if required to do so by law or by any Government body. We will only pass on information about you as an individual to third parties overseas to enable us to perform services requested by you.

We will always let you have a copy of personal information we have about you, should you request it, and you may correct it if you wish. Instructions about how to do this are available from sarah@stdma.com

If you have any questions or complaints relating to this Privacy Policy or how we use the personal information we have about you, please contact sarah@sdma.com. We will endeavor to respond to you promptly.