We Are Not Beautiful

a new dance theatre performance

Available Autumn 2026

Under the artistic direction of Laura Kenyon, WomanEwer provides a connection between women through the arts and offers a safe space to explore ideas around discrimination, abuse and violence using movement, voice and visual art.

We Are Not Beautiful is WomanEwer's vibrant and colourful new full length contemporary dance production which shines light on the women that protested against the Miss World Contest in 1970. Inspired by their protest slogan "We Are Not Ugly, We Are Not Beautiful, We're Angry!", the production recreates some of the narratives applied to the female body, and the clothes designed to be worn by women. With a diverse cast of six women, We Are Not Beautiful is highly physical, fun, loud and bold, celebrating womanhood, survival and strength.

We are Not Beautiful is currently in development and will premiere in 2026. The work is WomanEwer's follow up to their powerful and deeply affecting debut production I Have a Bruise, an autobiographical advocacy piece for survivors of sexual abuse to have their own voice.
