Srishti Pathways Redux

A performance of classical Indian dance and music showcasing new talent in the sector

Artistic Director of Srishti, Nina Rajarani MBE is an award-winning choreographer of classical Indian dance with 35 years' experience as a dance-maker. She fuels traditions of Bharatanatyam and Kathak with contemporary artistic practice and ideas, and has created a body of over 25 dance productions which have toured the UK and internationally. Alongside this Rajarani has developed a thriving School for Bharatanatyam dance, Karnatik vocal and Kathak dance at Srishti's base in Harrow in North West London, and has played the lead in formulating an internationally recognised syllabus for Bharatanatyam graded examinations for the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (ISTD).

In 2023, Nina Rajarani first established Srishti Pathways, an apprentice company showing new talent in the South Asian dance sector, people to really look out for. In 2026-27 this initiative returns with Srishti Pathways Redux, this time featuring an ensemble of 4 dancers with live music.

On tour the company will present a programme of classical Indian dance works choreographed and directed by Nina Rajarani. Srishti Pathways Redux is Rajarani's response to the needs of the sector to provide a bridge between studentship and professional performance and to nurture the next generation of South Asian dancers and musicians.
